

FASHION & STYLE

Malaak Compton-Rock

OCCUPATION: A "grassroots humanitarian," she says, who champions a range of social causes and in 1999 founded StyleWorks, a New York-based organization that gives free comprehensive grooming services to women leaving welfare and reentering the workforce.

She will also be a cojudge on the upcoming ABC reality show Oprah's Big Give. BACKSTORY: Born and raised in Oakland, California, the Howard University graduate and mother of two is married to comedian Chris Rock. STYLE

ICON: Iman, "for her grace, beauty and brains."

FAVORITE DESIGNERS: Rachel Roy, "for her simple, easy and elegant pieces," plus Dolce & Gabbana, Roberto Cavalli, YSL and Tracy Reese. MOST-FREQUENTED STORE: Bergdorf Goodman. "I am in and out quickly and always find what I need, no matter the occasion."

PRIZED POSSESSIONS: Her two Karl Lagerfeld fur coats. WOULD LOVE TO OWN: An alligator tote by Calvin Klein. WHAT SHE'S WEARING: A Roberto Cavalli silk caftan ($3,740), robertocavalli.com. Fred Leighton earrings ($25,000), 212-288-1872.

HAIR BY LISA DEVEAUX. MAKEUP BY KAREN DUPICHE

Produced by Amelia Vicini Photograph by John Huba